ADVERTISERS in those New York newspapers which aim at bigness above all things, are complaining that readers throw away the mere advertising sheets and so defeat the end of advertising. It is a wonder that advertisers have not made this discovery earlier. That part of a newspaper which is thrown away as soon as the big bundle is opened, is in fact no part of a newspaper, and the advertiser's money is wasted on it.

THE Inter-State Commerce Commission cannot do better than to give careful attention to safety appliances for railroads. The railroad company which can contribute to the safety of its employees and will not, should be made to do it if there be authority of law. If there be a lack of authority, Congress can supply what is wanting. The country is as much interested in saving life as in saving a fraction of a mill on a ton o

Marshal White and His Deputies.

Many Republicans do not understand | return President Arthur why it is that, notwithstanding the appointment of a Republican to be United States Marshal for West Virginia, the Democratic Deputy Marshals who served under Marshal Sehon are still making arrests through the State. The inference is that Marshal White has retained these Democratic Deputies. When Marshal White took the oath of

When Marshal White took the oath of office Marshal Schon and all of his Deputies went out. Mr. White reappointed two Republicans who had been retained by Mr. Schon because of their experience. Every one of Mr. White's Deputies is a Republican. The arrests being made by Mr. Schon's Democratic Deputies are on processes issued while Mr. Schon was Marshal, and which he, in person or by Deputy, is allowed by law to execute.

Iron and stone are the great burthen bearers, and which to adept is the question at issue.

It can be said, without doubt, that the world has had longer experience and more satisfaction in a good stone bridge than in any other, from the fact that it, is not so liable to decay, that it requires little or no repair year after year, that it. is not so liable to decay, that it requires little or no repair year after year, that it affords a safe and natural means of securing water and gas pipes from the action of frost, that it allow sthe adoption of the model brick pavement, keeping everything dry, that it never needs a pound of paint, that it carries with it the idea of symmetry and solidity, and that when well built it will last for ten generations. The adoption of a stone structure would insure the expenditure of almost the entire appropriation in our midst, amongst stone cutters, masons, lime burners, teamsters, sand haulers and many day laborers. This advantage will be duly weighed by our store keepers and trades people.

If the classes to be benefitted will exercise reasonable discretion in their demands, a full season's work may be done, resulting in good to the entire city.

Why They Lead.

Dr. Pierce's medicines outsell all others, because of their possessing such superior curative properties as to warrant their manufacturers in supplying them to the people (as they are doing through all druggists) on such conditions as no other medicines are sold under, viz: that they shall either benefit or cure the patient, or all money paid for them will be refunded. The "Golden Medical Discovery" is specific for catarrh in the head and all bronchial, throat and lung diseases, if taken in time and give a fair trial. Money will be refunded if it does not benefit or cure.

A portrait of Walter Blaine, successor to Francis Wharton, as Examiner of Claims for the State Department, has never before been issued, and is specially interesting for this among other reasons. Mr. Blaine is the second son of James G. Blaine, Secretary of State, and is about 35 years of age. He entered-the public service in 1881, when his father, then Secretary of State under President Garfield, appointed him Third Assistant Secretary of State. In the winter of 1818-82 he was sent as a special commissioner of the United States to Chili and Porn. He was recalled by Secretary Frelinghuysen, the news of his recall reaching him, not through the State Department, "but through the Botte President of the Foreign Office in Peru.
